WE'LL HAVE TO BE OUR OWN HEROES

Always, for love and rarely for money
We laughed and we laughed, but nothing was funny
We watched and we waited, the world fell to ruin
No heroes showed up, and we needed them soon

We'll have to be our own heroes
We'll have to be our own heroes

The champions, they called in sick that day
The villains were early, the cat was away
Angry, depressed, heartbroken and hollow
Angry, depressed, heartbroken and hollow
Took a deep breath and chose a new path
A new path to follow

We'll have to be our own heroes
We'll have to be our own heroes

So gather your courage time to make a stand
Keep your elbows in hit as hard as you can
There's nobody coming, so add up the zeros
I'll tell you once more we'll have to be our own heroes
So gather your courage time to make a stand
Keep your elbows in hit as hard as you can
There's nobody coming, so add up the zeros
I'll tell you once more we'll have to be our own heroes

IGNORE BUTTON

You give it half a chance and then you hit ignore
Your time so precious...your elite aesthetic
What are you busy with? What do you have in store ?
So many busy people, doing nothing

We got this freedom but this is what we do with it?
I'm disappointed to put it lightly
Indifference the general rule, banish what is not known
A closed off system, protect the precepts

You're talking to the wall; you're talking to the dog
You're talking but I don't hear anything at all
Removed from the picture all of a sudden
HIT! With the ignore button
IGNORE IGNORE

You give it half a chance and then you hit ignore
Your time so precious...your elite aesthetic
You're talking to the wall; you're talking to the dog
You're talking all this trash but I don't hear anything at all

You're talking to the wall; you're talking to the dog
You're talking, but I don't hear anything at all
Removed from the picture all of a sudden
HIT! with the ignore button
IGNORE IGNORE

The heartbreak of being ignored can be worse than being alone

WEIGHTLESS AND POINTLESS

I swear the floor just fell away, weightless and pointless without a sound
It's incredible how fast things can change
It's incredible how fast I'm moving now

Come on and hold my hand she said, and everything will be alright
That was only only one of the lies we shared
It's cold now the horizon is out of sight

I swear the world just fell away, not much point in even breathing now
Everything I love is so far away,
It just got a whole lot further now

Come on and hold my hand she said, and everything will be alright
That was only only one of the lies we shared
It's cold now the horizon is out of sight

Oh! Captain can this truly be the end
To be ignored by your enemies and killed by your friends
It can't go on like this there is a message I must send
It goes:

It's your turn
It's your turn
It's your turn

EVERYTHING'S AMAZING (NOBODY'S HAPPY)

We've got these phones!!! The signal goes up into space
Just leave me alone, Conversations I'd rather erase
Oh, you're bored? This ain't the time nor the place
Everybody's a star, and they're all in my face

So far so bad, what else is there to say?
Let me make this plain
You're burning in entitlement and drowning in privilege

Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy

You've got some balls to conduct yourself this way, its worth mentioning
We won't be here forever and hey that's ok
Is there anyone actively burning your fields?
Are things so tough that you just cannot deal?
You've lost the reason but you kept the rhyme
Would you like some cheese with that whine?
Can you hear these complaints you have said?
Do you truly wish you were dead?
HARDLY
You're still burning in entitlement and drowning in privilege

Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy
Because everything's amazing and nobody's happy
Nobody's happy

Now! What do we do now? Now! What do we do now?
Everything's amazing! Nobody's Happy!
Now! What do we do now? Now! What do we do now?
Everything's amazing! Nobody's Happy!
Now! What do we do now? Now! What do we do now?
Everything's amazing! Nobody's Happy!
Now! What do we do now? Now! What do we do now?
Everything's amazing! Nobody's Happy!

What do we do?

EXASPERATED, INC.

We're coming in one wing down, the engine is on fire
Not given half of what we need and none of what we desire
Exasperation grows, don't you know?
Have you been damned by faint praise or no praise at all?
Nobody acknowledges your rise; they just wait for the fall
Exasperation grows, don't you know?

So dream big, and live small
As if you had a choice at all
Exasperation grows, don't you know?
So much character built, so many loose ends
What you learn is you can and that it never ends
Exasperation grows, don't you know?

It used to be beat the odds, now it's beat the clock
I spent most of this life screaming outside the airlock

So come on, come on, come on... this has to be a put on...
Is this truly the only earth that I can live on?
Exasperated, Inc.
It's worse than you think
Exasperated

This world will drag you down if you let it... so don't let it!

Have you been left for dead? Been beaten and spurned
Assigned more woe than what has been earned
Exasperation grows, don't you know?
So keep one eye on the future, one in history
Won't be ruled by mediocre misery
Exasperation grows, don't you know?

It used to be beat the odds, now it's beat the clock
I spent most of this life screaming outside the airlock

So come on, come on this has to be a put on...
Is this truly the only earth that I can live on?
Exasperated, Inc.
It's worse than you think
Exasperated, Inc.
It's worse than you think
Exasperated

This world will drag you down if you let it... so don't let it!

THE END OF MEMORY

No past! No history!
No awareness of any kind of anything you see
Information cloud means nothing to me
Welcome one and all to the end of memory

Haunted by ideas, haunted by our own mortality
Haunted by convenience, unaware of history
This ain't no utopia; this society gets a "D"
This is the future this is the end of memory
End of memory
End of memory
End of memory

No past! No history!
No awareness of any kind of anything you see
Information cloud means nothing to me
Welcome one and all to the end of memory

Haunted by ideas, haunted by our own mortality
Haunted by convenience, unaware of history
This ain't no utopia; this society gets a "D"
This is the future this is the end of memory
End of memory
End of memory
End of memory

Implicit trust on everything you read
That's how we roll at the end of memory
No critical thinking man, it's unnecessary
Nobody is listening anyhow

No critical thinking man, it's unnecessary
Nobody is listening anyhow

FOR SERIOUS

There's no prize for indifference, no award for irony
Share your perfect aloofness, we can share the disease
Some folks they call this a problem, I call it opportunity
No time for noble detachment, we're too busy doing things

This is for real, this is for serious
Don't you know that this is for serious?
This is for real, this is for serious
Don't you know that this is for serious?

Is this is for real, is this is for serious?
This is for real, this is for serious

This world it makes me sick, I've had enough of snarky quips
You see, innovation's been eclipsed by references and mimics
Tell me: where, where, oh where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
What, what do we do now, the attention span it wanes
But going to tell you anyhow

This is for real, this is for serious
Don't you know that this is for serious?
This is for real, this is for serious
Don't you know that this is for serious?
